

Project Overview

Centro II is a predominantly tilt-up construction project, but with other conventional forms of construction where required. It is constructed on a site that had to be raised to avoid localised flood problems and comprises many of the elements in Stage I to give the feeling of one total new development in this area. Two major tenants were P & O Services and Wang, both with specific building requirements which were accommodated.

