

Project Overview

The construction of an extension to the existing pre school building which incorporated new open plan classrooms, kitchen, offices, amenities and storage area under the building. The building was founded on solid rock and constructed over the Christmas break ready for the new school term. The pre school was operational during construction for holiday day care so particular attention was paid to construction methods and programs to minimise any disruptions.

