

Project Overview

New modern science block for Warwick State High School, including 4 teaching rooms, preparation room and teachers staff room. The buildings was fully fitted with gas outlets, fume cupboards and chemical storage cupboards and has full disabled access including height adjustable science benches. The project also included refurbishment of the old science building into modern teaching rooms.

