

Project Overview

The project consisted of the refurbishment of an old cement bag storage shed into a modern 102 seat office and a concrete testing lab underneath. Bored piers were drilled into unstable ground to hold decorative tilt up panels which became features in the main conference rooms.

